

The Daily Courant.

Friday, December 10. 1714.

London, December 10.
Yesterday arrived two Mails from France.

From the Gazette a la Main.
Paris, December 12.

WE have Letters from Venice which say, that a Ship arrived from Napoli de Romana had brought Advice that a Report was spread there of an Action between the Montenegrins and the Turks, wherein the latter have been defeated, and forced to retire with the Loss of 18000 Men killed or wounded.

The Electors of Bavaria and Cologne will suddenly depart to take Possession of their Estates. The former, who is still at Compeigne, will come hither again before he departs, and will lodge with M. de Monasterole his Envoy, who is preparing an Apartment for him in his House. The Reform of the King's Troops is actually making.

Paris, Dec. 15. A Deputation of the Commanders of Malta have waited upon the King, to thank him for his Bounty to their Order, his Majesty having made them a Present of 100000 Crowns, and given them 100 Canoniers and as many Bombardiers, and permits each of them to take 7 Grenadiers in his Equipage. The King has given the Count de Luc a Pension of 3000 Livres, and granted him the Survivance of his Places for his Children. An Express arrived 3 or 4 Days ago from Stralsund, who brings a Letter to the King from the King of Sweden, to notify his Majesty's happy Arrival there. The Count de Cressy, Brother to the Marquis de Torcy, is named to go Ambassador to that King, and 'tis said the Marquis de Sommaray is also named to go to Bavaria. 'Tis said Falkenberg and its Forts are evacuated. The Bavarian Troops, in Number 14000, are in full March to return thither; and those of the Empire are entered into the Duchy of Luxemburg.

M. Amelot set out on Monday Morning on his Embassy to Rome, with Doctor Terny, Principal of the College of Ainville, who is sent on the Part of the Clergy, and they hope to arrive at Rome before the end of this Month.

The Elector of Cologne gave a magnificent Treat last Sunday to the Electoral Prince of Saxony. They continue to pack up the Baggage of that Elector, and 'tis said that he will depart next Week to return to his Dominions. The Duke of Orleans is going by the direction of his Physician to take the Waters of Balnearie in Languedoc.

London, December 10.

Yesterday was published the King's Proclamation, for putting the Laws in Execution against Papists and Non-jurors, wherein the several Acts of Parliament that have been made to that purpose are referred to; and the Justices of the Peace are ordered to disarm all Papists, and tender the Oaths to all disaffected Persons; confine Papists to their Habitations or within five Miles of it, and to give an Account of their Proceedings to the King and Council.

A Copy of the Presentment of the Grand-Jury of Middlesex, against the Author Printer and Publisher of the Weekly Paper Entituled, The Examiner.

WE the Grand Inquest for the County of Middlesex having been directed by this Honourable Court to Inquire and Present all treasonable seditious or scandalous Books and Papers, do accordingly with just Indignation Present the Authors Printers and Publishers of a certain Libellous Paper entituled, The Examiner, published twice a Week, under that revived Title, and spread in Coffee-houses and other Places of Resort, to Poison the Minds of People with seditious Stories, traitorous Insinuations, and very scandalous Expressions, highly reflecting on the pious Memory of the late Queen, and the wise and just Administration of his Majesty, and the Credit and good Name of his best Subjects; and by these Means wickedly tending to create Animosities and Divisions among his Majesty's Lige People, to raise groundless Fears and Jealousies of the dangers of the Church, and to weaken the Reformation, by alienating the Affections of Protestant Brethren from one another, whereby the Honour and Interest of our holy Religion will be blemished and impaired both at home and abroad, and the Attempts and Designs of Popery and a Popish Pretender will be no less encouraged and supported. We are the more sensible of this Mischief and Scandal done to the Government, because we are apprehensive that by this and such like seditious Libels the Peace of this Kingdom has been of late disturbed, and the Minds of disaffected People directed to those Rebellious Tumults and Riots which have been chiefly owing to the false Suggestions and evil Impressions made on the Minds of ignorant Men by such bold and seditious writers and spreaders of Falshood and Scandal. And we humbly conceive, that the due punishing and suppressing of such insolent Practices will very much tend under God's Providence to the Peace and Safety and Glory of his Majesty's Government, and to the lasting Happiness of this Church and State.
